DAVID: A HEART FOR GOD

("A Man After God's Own Heart" – Part 6 – David had a REPENTANT Heart)

10/6/10

INTRODUCTION:

When someone has a heart for God, it does not mean that they are perfect, sinless, etc., but that when the Holy Spirit convicts them of their sin, they are genuinely repentant.

Intro: Swindoll, p. 101

David had a REPENTANT heart!

I. David genuinely repented after his sinful ADULTERY (II Sam. 12:13)

SEE: Swindoll, p. 109

Manifestations of David's repentant heart:

A. David took personal responsibility for his sin
(He didn't blame others)

"I have sinned. . ."

David recognized that the fault was his own.

We can blame no one for our sin (James 1:14)

B. David called sin what it is
(He didn't redefine it)

"I have sinned. . ."

C. David recognized that his sin was against God
(He realized his violation of God's holiness)

". . . against the LORD"

Joseph realized that the worst thing about adultery was that it was a sin against God (Gen. 39:9)

D. David did not make excuses for his sin
(He offered no elaborate alibi)

"I have sinned against the LORD." (period)

In the Hebrew, David only said 4 words ("I sinned against Yahweh") joined into 2 words -

"Chatati LaYahweh!"

Unlike David, Saul gave excuses for his sin (SEE: I Sam. 15:23-24)

II. David genuinely repented after his sinful census (II Sam. 24:10)

Manifestations of David's repentant heart:

NOTE: God allowed Satan to entice David to number Israel (SEE: I Chron. 21:1-4)

Why was it wrong for David to number Israel? His trust had shifted from God (EX: his victory over Goliath) to his military resources.

It was pride, an inflated ego, that called for the census.

SEE: Swindoll, p. 147

A. David was deeply convicted by his sin
"David's heart smote him. . ."

He was conscience-stricken.

B. David realized the enormity of his sin
"I have sinned greatly. . . very foolishly"

C. David desired to be freed from his sin
". . . take away the iniquity"

D. David accepted the penalty for his sin
". . . let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me" (v. 17)

CONCLUSION:

SEE: Psalm 32

SEE: Psalm 51

David's sin was great, but his repentance was greater.

His sin was really selfish, but his penitence was really sincere (marked by travail of soul, a longing to be free from the pollutants of the spirit).

Perhaps what you need today is a good cry (to mourn) over sin (II Cor. 7:10)
