Is the Worldwide Church of God giving people "the plain truth"?

--Here is a brief list of the cultic blasphemous teachings of Armstrongism:

1.Exclusivism

Armstrong said: He alone restored the true Gospel (which was supposedly lost) in 1934. Nothing of any importance in church realms happened on earth from A.D. 70 to Jan. 1, 1934. (MacGregor, p. 81).

The Bible says: Matthew 16:18

2.Redefinition of "Israel"

Armstrong said: Great Britain and the USA are two of the ten lost scattered tribes of Israel--namely Ephraim and Manasseh. This theory is known as "British Israelism."

[Note: In order to enforce the Old Testament laws given to Israel upon people in the USA, Armstrong teaches that we are "Israel."]

The Bible says: The twelve tribes were not lost (Luke 2:36; Acts 26:6, 7; James 1:1; Rev. 7:4-8; Rom. 11:26)

3.Denial of the Trinity

Armstrong said: Trinitarianism "limits God to a supposed three persons," but there is unlimited room in the Godhead. God is now a "family" or "kingdom" of two persons, the Father and the Son. But the "God family" will consist of "millions" of "God beings"-- church members deified at the Second Coming. They will be Spirit as God is Spirit, eternal as God is eternal, divine as God is divine.

The Bible says:

--Man is categorically different from God (Isaiah 45:6).

--Believers will be glorified, not deified (Romans 8:30).

--Believers will be "co-heirs" (Romans 8:17), not co-equal.

4.A Works Salvation

Armstrongism teaches: The "new birth" is a process, not to be completed until the resurrection. "Jesus alone, of all humans, has so far been saved" (W.W.Y.B., p. 11)

The Bible says: John 5:24

Armstrongism: Baptism is an essential ordinance for salvation. You must be baptized to become a true Christian ("This is the worldwide church of God" in TW, Feb. 1971, pp. 16-17).

The Bible says: Titus 3:5; Ephesians 2:8; I Corinthians 1:17; Luke 23:43

Armstrongism: The Sabbath is "the test command. . . on which your very salvation and eternity depends."

The Bible says: Colossians 2:16; Romans 14:5; Exodus 31:12-17

Note: Armstrong: Christ's resurrection was not Sunday, but Saturday.
The Bible: Mark 16:1-2; Luke 24:1; John 19:31, 20:1; cp. Acts 20:7; I Corinthians 16:2

Armstrongism: The seven Old Testament festivals, feast days, and dietary laws are essential for salvation.

The Bible: Colossians 2:16; Matthew 15:11

Armstrongism: "galatianized" the Gospel. SEE: Galatians 2:16; 3:2

5.Repudiation of hell fire

Armstrong said: that the Great Tribulation would begin in 1965 and end in 1972.
The Bible: Matthew 24

Armstrong said: Unbelievers would have a second chance to be saved during the Millennium.
The Bible: Hebrews 9:27

Armstrong said: When a human being dies, he is DEAD, which means that his body, mind, and soul are all dead. He simply stops being ("Do you have an immortal soul?" p. 41).
He taught "soul sleep" or "unconsciousness after death."
The Bible says: Luke 16:19-31; Matthew 10:26; Luke 12:4-5; Philippians 1:21-23; II Corinthians 5:6-8; II Peter 2:9.

Armstrong said: "The concept of 'hell' is part and parcel of the folklore and mythology of the whole world. . . as a place of punishment and torture of the wicked" ("Tomorrow's World," p. 14, 18).
The Bible says: Psalm 9:17; Matthew 5:30, 8:12, 10:28, 13:42, 25:41 & 46; Revelation 20:10; 21:8.
