COUPLES QUIZ ON FAMILY UNITY

1. What is the purpose of marriage?

   1) To develop a large estate to leave to your children

   2) To develop a home (companionship; passing values on to children)

   3) For husband to have someone to do his laundry and cook his meals

   4) To have someone to keep your feet warm at night

2. What do children need more than anything int he world?

   Two _____ who _____ each other very much

3. What is the key factor to the successful education of our children?

   _____ _____

4. What are the factors destroying our homes? (hurting family unity)

   1) _____ neglect and absence

   2) _____ working _____ the home

   3) _____

   4) _____ music

5. What does Deuteronomy 6 command fathers?

   Morning, noon, and night, _____ your children in the _____ of the Lord.

6. How many hours of TV did the average child watch in 1985?

   ___ hours

7. "You must spank children for direct _____ and _____."

8. List three of the factors that build family unity which you feel you could best do with your family:

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

9. List two traditions you have with your husband and children (or would like to have):

1) _____

2) _____

10. "In the name of training, we have gotten very _____with our children."

11. What are three foundational principles for a happy marriage?

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

12. What determines if you are happy or unhappy?

1) YOU make up your mind

2) Your mate's mood

3) If you have enough money

4) Your husband sending you flowers

13. List two approaches to solving problems in marriage:

GOOD - Put your creative energy _____ to find _____
BAD -_____ each other

14. Share one thing which Dr. Fremont said which was of great help to you:

_____